

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Clyde Bowen was hired by South Dakota State University on March 18, 1991, as an internal auditor; and,

Whereas, Clyde's calm and sensitive personality is appreciated by all who worked with him; and,

Whereas, Clyde holds high ethical standards in the most challenging circumstances, and has always demonstrated consistent accuracy and attention to detail; and,

Whereas, Marilyn Bowen was hired by South Dakota State University on June 1, 1991, as a senior claims clerk in the Accounts Payable Department; and,

Whereas, Marilyn's hard work and dedication to remain appraised of current policy ensured cost effective airfare purchases for university staff travel; and,

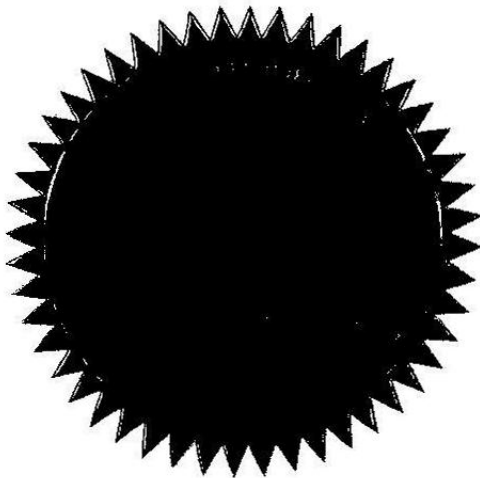

Whereas, Marilyn's ability to follow through with a project, her attention to detail, and her ability to work efficiently in a fast paced environment in order to meet many deadlines, attribute to the much deserved respect from her co-workers; and,

Whereas, Clyde and Marilyn Bowen will retire on June 30, 2003, and shortly thereafter, move to Iowa:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join their colleagues, friends, and family as they recognize Clyde and Marilyn for their commitment to successful careers, and wish them well going forward.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
